This was faithfully remembered and performed, as Carlyle afterwards learned from Mrs. Warren. THE SECOND FLOOR. The Spare Bedroom.--This chamber, now occupied by the caretaker, is a pretty, bright, three-windowed room, with partly panelled walls, and a beautiful little fireplace. It was originally, as is evident from the separate doors on the landing, two rooms. In 1843 the partition was removed, and Mrs. Carlyle made her bedroom here for a time; she, however, gave it up in 1852 for the quieter back room below, and thence forward it became the guest-chamber. The bed stood with its head against the southern wall. Amongst the pictures were portraits of Friedrich s grandmother and mother, of Motley, of De (,)uinney,...
