Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Encyclopaedia of the Laws of England, Vol. 7: With Forms and Precedents Where the identity of parties to an action is called in question, the solicitor may be called to identify his client as party to any affidavit or pleading filed therein (Taylor, s. 935). Collateral facts not otherwise relevant are admissible to show the identity of a person accused of crime or to rebut an alibi (Taylor, ss. 336, 337). Presumptions in favour of identity are made from identity of name or from replies in correspondence (Taylor, ss. 1856-1860). Goods. - In the case of goods, if a question of identity arises it is usual to produce the articles in Court and let the jury judge by their own senses; but witnesses may be called who have seen the goods and can give their opinion as to whether they are the goods in question (Taylor, ss. 555a). Where in an indictment an allegation is made descriptive of the identity of some thing, it must as a general rule be proved as made subject to...
